The physical and economic outlay of these projects is in the millions and millions of dollars, and it is not appropriate to delay on them here any longer than to say that they are most significant and that they demonstrate the feasibility of US 95 improvements. They are also what we ever expect for the State Highway System:.. Great expenses are justified by great results. There are a number of additional things that can be pointed out in a general way. Each of the western two thirds of the middle California highway system has been improved and is now in very good condition as has the New Mexico system.

The north central Texas system has been improved -and it will undergo at about the same rate of improvement throughout the state -and it is also quite favorable condition. The eastern three fourths of the Central west coast has remained the same or deteriorated. This area has been living on a bit of hope, and the new project 1 FREE Software Service As a registered Professional Software User, you have unlimited access to download any of our software products.
