Features Key:

Master and Expand Your Heroes

Take your heroes to the world of a multilayered story where the various thoughts of the characters intersect.

Be Led by Grace

Live your Hero as you elevate and deepen the relationship with the Goddess of Mercy and Elden Lords, and awaken to the power of the Elden Ring.

Change Your Champions' Ways of Thinking

Champion commands, system-based requests to monsters, and cultural formation. Develop your Champion's way of thinking—as diverse as having the ability to increase the armor you're wearing to that of an elf's, or the more formidable abilities of a dragon.

Search for New Paths

A lofty task to unlock which fills you with confidence and grows your mind. Through trials, search for new paths and develop your skills.

Explore an Outstanding World

A fine detail-rich world where open fields, towns and dungeons with complex designs are seamlessly connected.

Exchange Experience

With each other, you can increase the experience obtained by defeating monsters in a direct exchange, and grow your stats to be able to contribute to the world.

Collect Your Items

You can collect rare and useful items, such as shields, helmets, and the armor of other champions.

Constantly Open Frontier

The universe will only open once per player, which means that all actions must be finished once per 24 hours, ensuring a fully brand new experience each time.

How can I fix it? A: This is expected behavior since QGraphicsView (a subclass of QGraphicsScene) doesn't accept pixmaps as scenes. However there is a way to make it work. You have to create own QGraphicsScene class and subclass from it. Then you will be able to pass images and this class will take care of the things. Also you will have to provide some code for the move and zoom. class MyScene(QtGui.QGraphicsScene): def __init__(self, parent=None): super(MyScene, self).__init__(parent) img = QtGui.QPixmap('test.png') self.addPixmap(img) class MyGraphicsView(QtGui.Q
