FIFA is the Official Video Game of the FIFA 2023 World Cup™ in partnership with EA SPORTS™ FIFA, the world’s biggest sports video game franchise. Featuring the most authentic sports gameplay on any video game platform, FIFA brings to life the beauty of the game, including its most realistic simulation of player movement, player ball control, and player positions. In FIFA, you are the player, captain and manager, and lead your favorite football club into the biggest occasion in football. Will we go to the World Cup? We are all looking forward to going to Russia. With a squad that is more competitive than ever, we know that we have the potential to be the best team in the World. We are ready to step up and start the journey. Yes. We’re thinking Brazil, Argentina, Germany and Spain. I see they gave it to Russia but I don’t know why? Do you know who told us? No. It’s all on Twitter and Instagram. Well, there’s no reason. If you don’t like Russia, you can change your team. I’m not against Russia. That’s my house. Is this going to be the best World Cup ever? There are always ups and downs in football. We went through ups and downs last year too, but hopefully this time the ups will be bigger. It’s going to be the best, I promise. How long can you keep that promise? I promise the sun will rise and sets on the first of July. Why won’t it? Because the sun doesn’t rise and sets on the first of July, it rises on the first of August. But I want the sun to rise on the first of July, so I will say it will rise on the first of July. How do you feel about the upcoming World Cup? It’s great. I want everyone at the World Cup, no matter which nation they come from. Whether they are Lebanese or Pakistani, Australian or Japanese. Everyone is welcome here, for they have the same dreams as us. Will FIFA 20 be the best-selling World Cup ever? We want to make FIFA the game that all players want to play. My hope is everyone at the World Cup, from every continent. bc9d6d6daa

What's new in Fifa 22:

- Introducing “HyperMotion Technology” uses data captured from real-life pro players on the field during a match to power gameplay.
- Player Instinct - You'll learn to see the game in a whole new way as the “second-screen” features that outline areas of a match, allowing you to see crucial moments, or draw your own conclusions without slowing down play. Now, you can control a match that's in full flow. And, the new momentum indicator lets you know when things are going great, or when an opposing player knows they're in hot water.
- Choosing what they are - All New TV UI - With customizable UI tools, including Full-Screen, Tabs and Customizable Roles, players can continue to personalize FIFA Ultimate Team with eye-catching formations, buttons and player roles.
- Easily change camera - Also, kick off 20 new My Kit players created by your favourite creators in FIFA My Clubs - the best part is, more than 50 FIFA player-created kit items have also joined the fray.
- Include more than ever in Carz - As players reveal more and more information about the game through social networks, gameplay options (including Full Caravans and player to player communication) and stories within the Carz app, there will be even more way for you to personalize your gameplay experience.
