Game "6 Seasons and a Game" is an 8 v 8 paintball war game for the PC. The objective is to defeat your opponents in a mind numbing paintball battle by covering more of the colored disks on the map. This is achieved by eliminating the remaining disks on the map. Note: The initial early access version of this game will feature a classic style version of our map

In Towns you manage a settlement, on top of an active dungeon. You'll have to fight the countless monsters, from evil owls to dragons, that roam the dungeon, as well as the monsters that the heroes of your settlement run into. Of course you'll also have to craft your settlement; even the modest buildings are built with high-tech materials. Towns features a unique twist on city building. Both the RPG and strategic aspects will be fleshed out over a series of sprawling dungeons. This game will require skill, strategy and good management skills! Both sides are fighting hard to make sure this fight is a success. AEP has pledged to pay $5,000 to the winner and has offered a $2 million bonus for the loser if they don't put on a show. Meanwhile Mayweather has been calling McGregor a coward for telling TMZ Sports that he will not give up the fight.
